Dkt. No. 4:18CR00144-001

2

03/02/2018: Report on Offender Under Supervision filed as it was alleged the offender possessed and used marijuana as evidenced by a positive drug test for a marijuana metabolite on February 20, 2018, and the offender's subsequent admission. The Court concurred with the probation officer's recommendation to admonish offender and increase drug testing.

03/07/2018: Transfer of Jurisdiction from Eastern District of Missouri to Southern District of Texas.

NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1 Drug Possession, Usage, Distribution, or Administration

On May 8, 2018, during an unscheduled home contact, Mr. Samassekou submitted a urine specimen to the U.S. Probation Officer which returned a positive result for a marijuana metabolite. When confronted on May 31, 2018, Mr. Samassekou admitted being recently around co-workers who had been smoking marijuana. He further admitted it had been approximately three weeks since he had smoked marijuana.

U.S. Probation Officer Action: Mr. Samassekou has submitted a second positive urine specimen. As a controlling strategies, the probation officer held a non-compliance meeting with offender and will increase supervision. As a correctional strategy, the probation officer will refer him for outpatient substance abuse treatment.

Approved:

Respectfully submitted,

Javier Garcia, Supervising
United States Probation Officer
